SOLARVEST DONATES 1 MILLION MEDICAL GLOVES TO SUPPORT FIGHT AGAINST COVID-19

Kuala Lumpur, 24 March 2020 – Solarvest Holdings Berhad has pledged to donate 1 million medical gloves worth approximately RM150,000 through the Supermax Foundation to support Malaysian authorities in combating the Covid-19 pandemic.

Group Chief Executive Officer of Solarvest, Mr. Davis Chong Chun Shiong (张俊雄) said, “As many brave frontliners are relentlessly fighting against the global pandemic, we would like to help ease some of the pressure faced by the healthcare frontliners as supplies of medical items are depleting. Our thoughts continue to be with the victims of Covid-19 and their families as well as frontline healthcare professionals during this difficult period.”

“At Solarvest, we stand in solidarity with the communities we serve, in good and bad times. We believe everyone has a role to play in this battle. Together, let’s do our collective part in combating this unprecedented situation,” he concluded.

Founder of Supermax Corporation Berhad, Datuk Seri Stanley Thai said, “We welcome more corporates such as Solarvest to come forward to support our quest to save lives and minimize the widespread of the Covid-19 outbreak. The nitrile powder-free medical gloves will be distributed to the Malaysian government hospitals, police stations and the healthcare industry’s first responders with the help of National Disaster Management Agency of Malaysia (NADMA) to ensure timely delivery.”
